

FERNANDO PEDRO MOUTINHO

NON-EXECUTIVE MEMBER

ACADEMIC TRAINING

Graduated from the University of Évora as a Landscape Architect;

Post-graduate degree from ISCTE in Evaluation and Organizational Development of Public Administration.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Currently

Municipal Director of Urban Hygiene (MDUH), at Lisbon City Hall, with responsibilities in the management of the municipal fleet, mechanical maintenance and urban waste removal service.

2013 - 2019

Vice-President of Autoridade Nacional de Segurança Rodoviária - ANSR.

2011 - 2013

Assistant to the Vice-President of CML participating in the analysis of mobility, transport, road safety and participative budget solutions and in the monitoring of urban requalification projects.

2006 - 2011

Municipal Director of Civil Protection, Safety and Traffic, at Lisbon City Hall, with responsibilities in the Management of public roads and transport; liaison with transport operators, security forces, public entities and citizens and in the Management of emergency and Civil Protection intervention.

2005 - 2006

Assistant to the CML Councillor for Mobility.

apr 2002 - may 2005 / out 1995 - out 1999

Member of the Portuguese Parliament;

Presidency of the Parliamentary Commission of Public Works, Transport and Communications (2004-2005);

Member of the following Committees: Ad-hoc Committee for Monitoring Euro 2004; Inquiry Committee into the Accident in the Terreiro do Paço Metro Tunnel and Coordinator of the Work Group of Terminal XXI of Sines Port;

Coordinator of the Parliamentary Committee for Planning, Local Power, Social Equipment and the Environment and Coordinator of the Ad-hoc Committee for Monitoring Expo '98 (1995-1999).

1992 - 1993

Director of the Municipal Services for Water and Sanitation - SMAS, Vila Franca de Xira.

1992 - 1995

Assistant to the Minister of Planning and Territorial Administration, of the XII Constitutional Government, having followed the areas of Urban Development, Local Power, Territorial Planning, Collective Equipment and Green Spaces and for support in the preparation of the 2nd Community Support Framework at the Minister's Office level.